Job Experience

2016 Interapt Graphic Design Internship

During my first foray into the design world, I closely shadowed the senior graphic designer at Interapt. This immersive experience allowed me to learn the fundamentals of graphic design, understand the intricacies of the business, and develop a strong foundation in creative processes and client interactions.

2018 Boxcar PR Graphic Design Internship

At Boxcar PR, I honed my skills by designing a wide array of creative materials. My responsibilities included creating engaging social media graphics, print materials such as postcards, flyers, and business cards, as well as digital content like ebooks and web ads. This role significantly enhanced my ability to produce diverse and compelling visual content.

2018-2022 The Marketing Squad Graphic Designer

In my role as a graphic designer at The Marketing Squad, I was tasked with a variety of design projects. These included web design, advertisements, social media graphics, and print materials such as brochures and flyers. This position allowed me to further refine my design skills and gain experience in delivering high-quality visual solutions.

2022-2023 The Marketing Squad Creative Director

As the Creative Director at The Marketing Squad, I lead a team of marketing professionals and oversee all creative projects. My role involves developing innovative design strategies, ensuring the quality and consistency of visual content, and fostering a collaborative environment. I work closely with clients to understand their vision and bring it to life through impactful design.

2023-Present Stay at Home Mom + Freelance Work

Took a break from full-time professional work to focus on family as a stay-at-home mom, while actively engaging in freelance graphic design projects to keep my skills sharp and stay connected with the industry. During this period, I managed to balance family responsibilities with creative work, delivering high-quality design solutions for various clients. This experience not only allowed me to hone my time management and organizational skills but also ensured continuous professional growth and adaptability in a dynamic environment.
